Prayers for Meagan Hawley

Please pray for Meagan Hawley as she is being flown from Zambia back to the USA in the morning (Sunday). She arrives in the USA on Monday and will have surgery on her tonsils Tuesday morning and they will do a biopsy. She has been ill for a few weeks and has some type of growth or lumps on her neck and tonsils. Today, an ENT specialist in Oklahoma City looked at regular pictures taken of her neck and throat and said she must get home immediately. She is flying with a friend who is a nurse and has been here working with Meagan in Zambia.

For those of you who have been to Zambia you know that Meagan is an amazing person who has dedicated her life to the orphan babies. Words cannot describe the impact Meagan has had on the lives of so many.

I am in Zambia now and a group of us just had prayers with Meagan. It is going to be a difficult time for her. Please pray earnestly for Meagan.

Praying for Meagan,
